

PRIVACY AND COOKIE DECLARATION – WEBSITE VISITOR

Pursuant to the GDPR¹, you are a ‘data subject’ and, pursuant to the e-privacy directive², you are a ‘user’. That is why we must give you this information. BoldLAW® may change this declaration from time to time and shall always comply with the applicable data protection legislation.

1. BoldLAW® is the site owner of www.boldlaw.eu and is the controller of the personal data that we process when you visit our website. BoldLAW® is the trade and brand name of the following legal entity:

R.o.R. BV/SRL

Veeartsenstraat 54 rue des vétérinaires, 1070 Brussels, Belgium

RPR (Brussels) 0568.696.251

If you have any questions about the processing of your personal data or your rights in this regard, please contact us by sending an e-mail to legal@boldlaw.eu.

2. Purposes and legal basis. When visiting our website, we shall process your personal data lawfully, fairly and in a transparent manner:
 - a. If you fill out the contact form on our website, your personal data (name, first name, email address) and communication data (your message) are processed to contact you.
 - b. Essential cookies are placed to ensure that our website performs properly, and such cookies may collect some of your personal data such as your language choice, your browser, and the IP address of your computer. Except for essential cookies, we must ask your prior consent for placing cookies. For more details, please refer to sections 7 and 8 of this policy.
3. Recipients. We may share your personal data with the following in the context of the visit of our website:
 - the personnel and collaborators of BoldLAW®.
 - our website provider (Wix.com).
4. Automated decision-making. BoldLAW® does not subject your personal data to automated decision-making, including profiling.

- Regulation (EU) 2016/679 of 27 April 2016 on the protection of natural persons with regard to the processing of personal data and on the free movement of such data; and
- The Belgian Act of 30 July 2018 on the protection of natural persons in relation to the processing of personal data.

² E-privacy directive refers to:

- Directive (EU)2002/58/EC of 12 July 2002 concerning the processing of personal data and the protection of privacy in the electronic communications sector.
- The Belgian Act of 13 June 2005 on electronic communication.

5. Transfer. BoldLAW® does not intend to transfer your personal data to a recipient in a third country (i.e. a country outside the European Union) or to an international organization, unless this is imposed on us by applicable law. However, our website provider, who is our data processor for some of your personal data, might transfer your personal data to a data center located outside the European Union, in which case the website provider warrants (i) there is a level of protection deemed adequate by the European Commission or (ii) that the relevant Model Standard Contractual Clauses are in place. Our website provider has informed us to be aware that the Court of Justice of the European Union issued a ruling invalidating the use of the EU-US Privacy Shield framework with immediate effect and has reassured us that it still has the appropriate protections and safeguards in place.

6. Measures. Our website is certified by USERTrust RSA Certification Authority. Our website provider implements appropriate technical, organizational and security measures to protect your personal data processed when visiting our website.

7. Cookies. A cookie is a text file that saves information about your website visit which is placed by our website on your computer or application. A cookie keeps track of the settings that you have selected and the actions that you have taken on our website. When you visit our website again later, our website recognizes your browser and remembers your settings because of this cookie. Cookies usually have an expiration date. Some cookies are automatically deleted when you close your browser (the “session cookies”), while others can be stored longer on your computer, sometimes until you delete them manually (the “persistent cookies”). Our website provider considers the cookies placed during your visit of our website as essential cookies and that they therefore may be placed without your prior consent. Nonetheless, during your first visit of our website our cookie banner asks for your consent to use essential cookies.

8. Cookie overview.
